With numerous recommendations from friends from Emporium, the couple even saved a great deal piquing their interest, Jessica and Matt of money. Through them they booked the MC and decided to hold their wedding in the Emporium the DJ, who were "fantastic! I couldn't have chosen Function Centre in Bankstown. With close to 200 better myself". These special touches just kept on guests attending, the pair needed a large enough coming; with fireworks on arrival, streamers for the venue to accommodate friends and family, but waltz and exploding balloons when the cake was didn't want to compromise on the intimate nature cut. "The service was amazing and to date, people of a wedding reception. "Georgia and Josino were are still commenting on how good the food was". so helpful — and the function centre itself was The MC held guests under his spell, weaving tales awesome! It was so modern and yet had a romantic into the night and keeping everyone laughing from feel to it," Jessica recalls. start to finish. "All up, I had the best day of my life

The staff were friendly and gave personal attention and if I had to do it all over again, I wouldn't change to all of the guests. They took care of everything, a single thing!" leaving the couple to enjoy the build up to their The Emporium Function Centre offers a big day as well as relish in the celebration of their comprehensive wedding management service that wedding. "From the moment Matt and I met Georgia begins with providing the perfect reception venue and Josino, we thought they were the most helpful and ends only when the last guest has left. It is also people. From when we arrived to when we left, the only venue in Sydney to provide a wedding absolutely nothing went wrong. Georgia continuously consultant free with every booking made, and offers kept me informed of the night's proceedings and an exclusive wedding diary to help create a magical everything went like a breeze." Because of referrals set of memories.
